

Year 3 Home Learning Letter – 11.05.20

Good morning! It's Monday again! I hope you all had a wonderful bank holiday weekend and celebrated VE Day in the beautiful sunshine. I'd love to see some photos of what you got up to! If you haven't seen it already, I've put up a couple of blog posts with some pictures and videos you've sent me. Have a look and maybe comment on them too! Have a lovely day everyone – missing you all!

Send an email to year3teacher@kingsapps.co.uk to say hi, show me your work or ask any questions and I'll reply when I can. If you want to chat to Mrs Sellars, you can email thehaven@kingsapps.co.uk.

Love Miss MacMaster xx

Spelling	Rule: Rare ways to spell the short /i/ sound. 'y', 'e', 'ui'. Have a look at these pictures, see if you can work out what word using the short /i/ sound the picture is representing. Extra marks if you can spell it using the correct /i/ grapheme! I'll show you the correct spellings tomorrow.             Make sure you check out Spelling Shed too – some of you have been rewarded extra honeypots for playing over the last week!
Reading	The Train to Impossible Places We're going to look at an extract of a new book called The Train to Impossible Places written by P G Bell. Here is the front cover:    <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ What do you think this story will be about?</li> <li>○ Where do you think the story is set?</li> <li>○ What might the main characters be like?</li> <li>○ What type of text do you think this is going to be?</li> <li>○ When might the story be set?</li> </ul> Please also spend at least 5 minutes reading any book you would like to. Noma Dumezweni (who plays Hermione Granger on the stage) has read the second chapter of The Philosopher's Stone aloud for you. Have a listen!
Writing	Lost and Found This week, we're going to work towards writing a story using this image. Answer these questions about the image and have a think about how you could fit scene this into your story.    <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Who are these divers? Are they here for good or evil purposes?</li> <li>○ Why do you think the divers are here? How did they get there?</li> <li>○ What feelings do you think the divers are experiencing?</li> <li>○ What do you think the stone giants are from? How did they get there?</li> <li>○ What do you think happened after this picture was taken?</li> </ul>

Handwriting

We are going to continue to look at the Slider family. Remember to practise that sliding motion! Stand in penguin position and practise moving and saying these letters. Then, lying in lizard position, practise writing these words using our focus letters by a tree.

Maths

Thursday's Solvemoji answer: + = 6 + 6 = 12

Today's Solvemoji:

+ = 12

- = 3

- = 2

Times table check in!

Time to see how your times tables are coming along. Time yourself completing this grid and see if you can beat your last time!

Wider Curriculum

Choose from these jobs:

- Computing: Use Scratch to build a conversation between two or more characters. You'll need to use the Looks, Event and Control menus. Extra challenge: get your sprites (characters) to walk up to each other before talking! You'll need to use the Motion and Event menu for that.
- PE: Set up a game to help practise your throwing aim. You could create a sort of dartboard or target in the garden or just use different sized boxes on the floor. Make sure you decide on the number of points for landing in each area. You may have 3 throws for your turn.

Question of the day

Do you think a hero could ever be scared?

Thursday's thoughts from Miss M: I think a hero can be scared because a hero is someone who does something brave. You can still do something brave and be scared at the same time.

Today, I'd like you to come up with your own question of the day. You could ask it to someone in your house or send me an email and I'll reply with what I think!

If you're stuck, choose one of these question starters and then choose something wacky to fill in the gaps! The weirder it is the more fun it is!

E.g. Would you rather have your mouth on your hands or on your feet?
 Would you rather be/have...?
 Do you think... could ever be...?
 Is it possible to...?
