

Year 6's Home Learning Letter

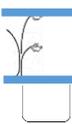

27.04.2020

Happy Monday everyone! I hope you had a lovely weekend. Today's quote is from Walt Disney himself. If you're feeling frustrated about not being able to go anywhere, just remember that books can transport you to any place or time that you want to go to. Keep sharing your work or contacting me for a chat at year6teacher@kingsapps.co.uk It's been lovely to hear from you and your parents. Missing you all lots.

Love Miss Wylde

Spelling	Rule: Words from the Year 5/6 Statutory Spelling List. Spelling sentence: The foreign secretary is a member of parliament who is currently leading the government, including chairing the Cobra Committee. Practise this week's spelling sentence. Try to use a range of different techniques over the week. Also use this week to work on your own personal spellings that you struggle with.
Reading	Spend at least 30 minutes reading a book today. Maybe try to find somewhere to snuggle up in the sunshine. Choose a story that will take you somewhere new and exciting!
Writing	This week, our English lessons are based on a book called, 'The Clockwork Crow' by Catherine Fisher. Read the opening extract of the text – make notes as you read: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do you have any questions? • Is there any vocabulary you don't understand? • What does it remind you of? • How does it make you feel?  1  <h1 style="margin: 0;">Seren Rhys is freezing</h1>  A clock ticks, frost is white. Stars travel through the night.   The railway station was deserted. The only thing that moved in its silent shadows was the big hand on the clock as it crept towards the hour of eight. Seren stared up at it, hypnotised and weary. How could it go so slowly? Had she really only been waiting half an hour? It seemed like forever. She was muffled in a heavy coat, a woollen hat, scarves and a shawl, but she had never been colder in all her life. Even with thick gloves thrust deep in her pockets she couldn't feel her fingers. Her toes were numb. In fact, if she didn't move   right now she would probably freeze to the spot, so she jumped to her feet and began to stamp up and down the bare platform, the thump of her clumsy boots ringing in the bitter night. She stamped fourteen steps to the wall. Fourteen steps back. To the wall. And back. Over everything – the benches and the roof and the railway posters – a thin layer of frost shimmered like crushed diamonds in the light from the lamp. The night was so silent it scared her. She breathed out a cloud and then turned quickly as the stationmaster's door opened. A big man in uniform came out and stared at her.   Read the text again before you answer the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Where is Seren? 2. How do you know time is passing slowly? 3. The author says the frost, "shimmered like crushed diamonds." What does this mean? 4. List three things that tell you that Seren is freezing.
Handwriting	     As promised, it's time for your capital letters! Remember, three by the tree, then three in a row for flow. Write 5 words and 5 sentences that begin with each letter. Don't forget to snuggle your letters and draw your trees in the margin!   C  O  S

I hope you enjoyed the game on Friday. It was lovely to hear that some of you played it together over a video call.

This week, we are going to work on volume. To find volume we calculate length x height x width. Calculate the volume of the cubes and cuboids below.

Maths

SPaG

Have a go at writing 3 sentences which include a relative clause. Remember, relative clauses begin with a relative pronoun – e.g. who, that, which, where etc.

Wider Curriculum

Science

This is the Eatwell Plate. It is a good model to help people to eat healthy. Have a careful look at each part of the guide, then answer the questions below.

1. The Eatwell Guide is divided into _____ sections.
2. Each section has a set number of portions that you are advised to eat.
 - Starchy foods: _____ portions.
 - Dairy: _____ portions.
3. Each section provides different nutrients.
 - Dairy foods provide _____ and _____.
 - Fruit and vegetables provide _____ and _____.
4. Why are the foods with high levels of fat, sugar or salt on the outside?

Joke of the Day

You know how much I like words so I follow a Facebook page called Vocabulary Ninja. Anyway, they have started to have a joke of the day to cheer everyone up so I'm going to share one with you each day because they have been making me smile.

What do you say to comfort a teacher?
They're, there, their.
