Discussion of the Week

Welcome back everyone! I can't believe that the first week back has flown by already. I hope you all had a good half term. Thankfully the rain seems to have held off slightly more this week, although it has become very chilly! Please ensure that your children have a coat with them every day, and warm layers for outdoor PE. Tracksuit trousers and a jumper (school jumpers and cardigans can be used, although you might prefer for them to have an alternative one).

The children have settled well back into school and have started their units of work well. I have been amazed by the quality of the work children have been doing in all areas of the curriculum and we are excited about sharing this with you at parents evenings later this month. Please note that the booking system online will open next Monday. Also next Monday, we will celebrate Armistice Day in assembly, and also award our class Respect Champions. Watch this space for news of the winners!

Y6 Osmington Bay

Y6 have marked the first week back by being away from school working hard! There have been lots of blog posts this week from where our Y6 children are on residential. Feedback from the centre has made us all incredibly proud. Several of the instructors have commented about how well the children have encouraged and supported each other, as well as how respectful they are. This is fantastic, and I am always delighted when our children achieve this feedback which is thoroughly well deserved.

Children in Need

Next Friday (15th) is the BBC Children in Need event. Due to us already having done several different fundraisers this year so far, we wanted to mark the occasion and provide the opportunity to donate to this good cause if you wish. We are offering children (staff and parents too!) the chance to dress up with a spotty theme (including a spotty face if you would like to!). If you take part, you can donate, but there is certainly no expectation to. Collections will take place during register time in the morning.

Fair Trade Snack Shop

A reminder about Fair Trade Snack shop. It is open every day for children in KS2. Children in KS1 and YR get government funded fruit snacks every day. KS1 and YR children can if they wish visit the snack shop on Friday. Available to buy are fruit juice for 50p, biscuits for 40p and flapjacks for 70p.
